

Personal Property – Domestic Program

The Domestic Personal Property Program moves Department of Defense (DOD)-sponsored shipments of military and civilian service members, including civilian-appropriated and non-appropriated fund employees and the U.S. Coast Guard. The Domestic program consists of four main components: Interstate, Intrastate, Volume Move, and Mobile Home/Boat One-Time-Only (OTO) Programs.

- Interstate Program
Transports shipments within the Continental United States and Alaska.
- Intrastate Program
Transports shipments within a state. There are 49 states in the program, excluding Hawaii.
- Mobile Home/Boat OTO
Transports mobile homes and/or boats of DOD service members within the Continental United States and Alaska.
- Volume Moves
Transports especially large tonnage shipments (200,000 pounds or more) from one origin to one destination.
